KSU’s spring 2012 enrollment exceeded 23,000, increasing 2% over last spring.

As has been typical in recent years, the drop between fall and spring enrollments was relatively small at 4%, a decline of 1,072 students from fall’s 24,175.

Over the past ten years, spring enrollment grew by over 9,300 students (68%).
Credit hours for spring 2012 were up 2%, the same percentage increase as headcount. Over the past ten years, credit hour enrollment increased 91% as compared to 68% for headcount enrollment.

Enrollment and credit hour growth jumped substantially since on-campus student housing became available in 2002-2003.
Like the previous fall’s enrollment of freshmen, the spring’s total has fluctuated over the past decade. Of the 3,964 freshmen enrolled Spring 2012, 14% were new beginning or transfer freshmen compared to 63% the previous fall.

Freshman enrollment increased 23% (751 students) from Spring 2002 to Spring 2012.
For the 10th consecutive year, undergraduate enrollment reached another all-time high in Spring 2012 with 21,347 students, a 3% increase (522 students) over Spring 2011.

KSU had a net increase of more than 9,100 additional undergraduate students, a 75% increase over the past ten years.

The undergraduate enrollment growth over the past 10 years was 75%, compared to 14% for graduate enrollment.
